

DEPAUW NINE WILL OPEN ITS SEASON SOON

FIRST GAME ON TIGER BASEBALL SCHEDULE IS WITH STATE NORMAL ON McKEEN FIELD FRIDAY, APRIL 4—TWO OPEN DATES.

SCHEDULE HAS 14 GAMES

DePauw baseball men will hit the diamond late this week according to present plans of Coach Conklin of the Tiger squad. Indoor practice is under way at present and as soon as the weather permits McKeen Field will be put in use for practice for the 1919 season. With less than two weeks before the initial contest of the year with State Normal to be staged at Greencastle Coach Conklin is busy lining up his material. Six veterans and twenty new candidates will be depended upon to make up the Tiger nine, which has a heavy card to meet.

The schedule as it now stands includes a total of fourteen games with two open dates. Wabash will be met in the usual four-game series between the two schools. A four-day trip through Kentucky and Southern Indiana is also booked for early in May. Center College at Danville, Ky.; Georgetown University at Georgetown, Ky., and Hanover College will be met on this trip. Michigan Aggies will be met in one game to be played here May 1. Purdue and Franklin are also on the Tiger card again this season. The Boiler Makers will be played in only one game at Lafayette, while Franklin and the Tigers will stage a return contest.

The schedule as it now stands follows:

- April 4—State Normal at Greencastle.
- April 8—Open.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Principal Courson announced in chapel this morning that an interclass basketball tournament will be held the latter part of next week. The winners will likely be either the senior or the junior class, as the members of the first team are from the two upper classes. Two members from each of the four classes have been appointed and they will give out the time of the games in a few days. Banners and medals will be given to the winning five.

Tomorrow will see the passing out of the teachers watching guard of the hallways in the morning and afternoon before the taking up of school. Because of the good conduct of the student body while passing from one class to the other, there has been seen no need of the "traffic cops" and they will be laid off until some noisy group of girls (or boys) makes so much noise that it will interfere with the studying of some A-plus student.

Assistant Coach James Ramsey of DePauw has begun work for a strong G. H. S. track squad. Permission has been granted the high school for the use of the DePauw athletic field and daily the thinly-clad are practicing for the mile and high jump. The boys of the school have shown their interest in track this year greater than ever before and before long an interclass track tournament will be held, the winners competing against other schools later on in the season.

VAN DENMAN THOMPSON TO GIVE ORGAN RECITAL

An event of great interest to the musical public of Indianapolis, especially to those musicians who play the organ, is that of the coming recital by Van Denman Thompson, dean of the organ department of DePauw University. Mr. Thompson will be presented by the organ section of the Matinee Musicale, the recital to be free of charge, and to be given Tuesday evening, March 26, at the Meridian street Methodist church at 8 o'clock.

As dean of the organists of Indiana, a part of the Guild of Organists of America, Mr. Thompson has won many friends during his term of office in that society. The Ministerial Association of Indianapolis has been asked to extend an invitation to their congregations to attend the recital, and it is the earnest wish of the organ section of the Matinee Musicale that anyone interested in organ music will be present to hear Mr. Thompson.—Indianapolis Star.

"BABE" CONKLIN WILL COACH THE BASEBALL SQUAD

AMERICAN ZINC PRODUCTS CO. OFFICIALS, CO-OPERATING WITH THE UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC MANAGEMENT, AGREE TO ARRANGE MILL WORK SO THAT FORMER BASEBALL STAR NOW EMPLOYED THERE MAY COACH DEPAUW.

FIRST GAME APRIL 4

Charley "Babe" Conklin, a former baseball star, and successful coach of the DePauw University baseball team, will coach DePauw this season. Mr. Conklin is now employed at the American Zinc Products Company and it was feared that he would be unable to coach the team this spring.

But this morning Athletic Director Buss of the university was assured by the management of the mill that the company desired to co-operate with the university in giving it a winning team and that it would arrange to allow Mr. Conklin time to coach the team.

Work on the university diamond at McKeen Field was started this morning and by the last of the week it will be in shape for outdoor practice. The first game of the season is scheduled for April 4.

THREE DEPAUW GRID MEN PLAY ON SERVICE TEAMS

Three members of the DePauw 1917 football squad will meet in a football contest at Tours, France, late this month to determine a division championship of service teams. Capt. Bondurant and "Dunamy" Szold, playing with the famous St. Nazaire eleven, will oppose the Tours eleven, on which Joe Roysse is playing full back. All three men were regulars on the Tiger eleven in 1917 and played together throughout the season, all gaining either a place on the state team or honorable mention. The men enlisted at various times and did not meet until after their work in football again brought them together in France.

Roysse played at end on the Tiger squad for two years and was shifted to full back during a portion of his last season with DePauw. Bondurant, who is holding down a tackle's job with the St. Nazaire eleven, played that same position with the Tigers for two years. He was captain of the Old Gold squad in his sophomore year, prior to his enlistment. Szold worked at half with DePauw and held down the left back in every game. He enlisted at the close of his freshman year. Szold was also a track star at DePauw and is entered in the service Olympic meet to be held in France in May. Both Szold and Bondurant are expected to return to DePauw for football by next fall. Roysse was graduated last spring.

George James, formerly porter at the Ewing barber shop, who has been overseas with the U. S. army, has been discharged and is back home. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt James. He is the first overseas colored boy to arrive home. James was taken in the draft. He was in the artillery and was forty-seven days on the firing line during his stay in France.

Belmont Tompkins, one of the Greencastle boy who was with the Rainbow division, has arrived home from overseas and was here today visiting friends and relatives. Tompkins was badly gassed while in the service and was sent to a hospital afterwards invalided home. Tompkins is the first local boy who was a member of the Rainbow division to get home. His family now reside in Indianapolis, having removed from this town to that city.

Mrs. Austin, mother of Lee Austin, who lives near the waterworks pumping station just north of town, died this morning at near 8 o'clock following a stroke of apoplexy suffered a few days ago. Mrs. Austin never regained consciousness after the stroke. Mrs. Austin had come here from Kentucky following the death of her husband on January 13 to make her home with her son. During the winter Mr. and Mrs. Austin lost three children by death of pneumonia. The death of Mrs. Austin this morning makes the fourth death in the Austin home this winter.

RAINBOW BOYS TO LEAVE BREST

DATE OF SAILING FIXED BY GEN. PERSHING BETWEEN MARCH 28 AND APRIL 19—BOYS OF 42ND EXPECTED TO LAND AT NEW YORK IN TIME TO TAKE PART IN LOAN.

26 IS ALSO TO COME

Washington, March 29.—The 42nd (Rainbow) and 26th (New England national guard) divisions will sail from Brest between March 28 and April 19, the war department was informed today by General Pershing. The Rainbow division lands at New York and the New England division at Boston.

General Pershing said it would not be possible to send home the 77th (New York national army) division before April 24 unless German shipping became available sooner than was expected.

No Plans for Reception.

General Pershing did not indicate whether the 42nd or the 26th would be started home first. The former is at Ahrweiler, Germany, with the army of occupation, while the New England troops are at ontigny-le-Roi, France. The 77th is at Chateau Villian, France. Plans for the reception of the Rainbow and New England divisions in this country have not been announced, but the 42d, which is composed of guardsmen from twenty-eight states, probably will go to one of the camps near New York and the 26th to Camp Devens, Mass.

The New England division will parade in Boston before being demobilized and the 42d may appear in New York City. The Rainbow unit probably will arrive home while the Victory loan campaign is in progress and Secretary Glass is anxious that it should take part. This was the first guard division to go to France and it took part in the three great battles in which the American army fought—the Aisne-Marne counter-offensive, which drove the Germans beyond the Vesle, St. Mihiel and the Argonne.

Sailing Plans Changed.

First plans were to send the Rainbow unit home from Antwerp, but these were abandoned because of the danger from German mines in the waters off the Dutch and Belgian coasts. Later it was said the division probably would embark at St. Nazaire.

General Pershing has not informed the war department what division will replace the 42d with the army of occupation.

FARMERS TO PLANT OATS AND RAPE AS HOG PASTURE

Many Indiana hog raisers are planning to sow oats or rape as soon as possible to supply early pasture for their hogs. They have found from experience that no spring grown crop is ready to pasture in so short a time after planting, says J. R. Wiley, swine specialist of Purdue University.

The common practice is to sow six to eight pecks of oats and four to five pounds of dwarf Essex rape per acre. The seed-bed is prepared the same as for oats to be harvested for grain purposes, and the crop planted as soon as the soil and weather conditions allow.

With good growing weather this combination is ready to graze a month to six weeks after sowing, or when the oats plants are four to six inches high. An acre of good oats and rape forage will supply pasture for twelve to fifteen mature hogs.

The oats comes on more rapidly than the rape and is eaten off first. It furnishes pasture which the hogs like until it begins to joint and head. By this time the rape has grown large enough to supply lots of pasture.

Three to four pounds of alsike clover per acre is sometimes seeded with the amounts of oats and rape as given above. The alsike comes on after the rape, supplying late summer and fall forage.

More information about pasture crops for hogs is given in Purdue extension department bulletin No. 66. A copy will be mailed free on your request to the county agent or the extension department at Lafayette.

CARL O'HAIR WINS THE G. H. S. DISCUSSION CONTEST

Carl O'Hair, a member of the senior class, won the discussion contest Wednesday night on the subject: "Universal Service for Citizenship," which was held in the new high school auditorium. Principal W. Courson presided as chairman of the evening's entertainment. Cena Brothers, a sophomore of the school, won the piano contest and Leah Sears the vocal contest. Edna West won the reading contest.

The judges for the four contests were DePauw teachers and Greencastle citizens. The audience was greater than expected, as the lower part of the auditorium was comfortably filled. The winner of the local contest will enter in the county contest which will be held here on the evening of March 28. Only the winner of the discussion contest will go to the district contest, and if the winner of that will go to Lafayette, where he winner will contend for state honors. Miss Lela Walls, teacher of English in G. H. S., has had charge of the discussion members, Miss Leola Deam coached the students entered in reading and Miss Catherine Allison had charge of the musical program.

Mrs. Alonzo Cook, A. A. Hauck, James L. Randel and C. C. Hurst left today for Chicago, where they will attend a federal reserve district Liberty Loan meeting.

RED CROSS IN CAMPAIGN FOR USED CLOTHING

WAR RELIEF ORGANIZATION HAS BEEN CALLED UPON TO RELIEVE INTENSE SUFFERING BECAUSE OF LACK OF CLOTHING IN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES.

DRIVE STARTS NEXT WEEK

Cable advices from American Red Cross commissioners in Europe reveal conditions of intense suffering for lack of clothing among hundreds of thousands of men, women and children. Red Cross is again called upon to meet this tremendously pressing necessity for immediate relief for the joint benefit of all European countries except the Central Powers.

The plan to be followed is the one which has been so successful in the collection of clothing for Belgium. The distribution of the clothing will be entirely under the supervision of the American Red Cross. Where there are no American Red Cross organizations distribution will be made through Mr. Hoover's food representatives.

Every kind of garment for all ages and both sexes is sorely needed. In addition, piece goods, light warm cotton flannel and other kinds of cloth to make garments for new born babes, ticking, sheeting and blankets, woolen goods, shoes of every size, scrap leather for repairing shoes. Only garments of strong and durable materials should be sent. Garments need not be in perfect condition, but should be clean and dry. Do not compel the committees to handle mud-caked shoes and clothing.

The campaign will be held during the week of March 24 to March 31. Clothing may be brought to the city library at Greencastle. Any town or community desiring to do its own packing and shipping may do so by notifying the chairman of the relief committee, Miss Pearl O'Hair of Greencastle. Complete shipping and packing directions will be sent to such towns and communities. We are asked to use bags for packing, such as coffee, sugar or grain bags. If any of our grocers or grain dealers have such bags and will donate one or several to the cause, the favor will be much appreciated. The same committees are expected to act in this campaign that served in the former campaign, so they may get busy without further notice. The Red Cross organization everywhere is expected to do all in its power to make this drive a success.

PROF. SWEET DISCUSSES

HONOR SYSTEM AT DEPAUW

Prof. Sweet today discussed the honor system at DePauw in his class in American diplomacy, since no assignment had been given to the class. Referring to the examinations of last week, Prof. Sweet said that it was known to the faculty and discussed in their meeting Tuesday afternoon that several examination questions had been stolen before the exams. He also said that at least four students had not returned to school this term, as they did not know how the faculty would deal with it.

Prof. Sweet said that the faculty could pass no rules which would stop cheating altogether, but that the student body itself must get the spirit of honor instilled in it and that an honor court should be established by the students to try all cases of cheating.

University News

NO CUT WILL BE PERMITTED, CAPTAIN SAYS

"No cuts will be allowed this term," said Captain John T. Frazee when asked concerning the policy to be adopted in regard to cuts in the R. O. T. C. course this term.

Last term Captain Frazee did not turn in any list of cuts made by any of the freshmen and sophomore men taking the R. O. T. C. work, although a number of men did not attend classes, he states. However, this term Captain Frazee intends to follow a new policy and no cuts will be allowed. All cuts will be reported to the administration and no cuts will be excused unless made up, it is said.

This term there is to be two hours' drill instead of one, as last term. Drill will be held every Thursday and Tuesday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30. Team men may be excused from drill if Coach Buss sanctions their work on the team.

A new course in minor tactics will be given by the captain this term for sophomores and those with more than fourteen hours' credit. It will be a two-hour course, it is announced.

As for target practice, it is not definitely stated when this can be taken up, as it is not known for certain when the rifles will arrive, though they are expected at any time.

The first order for uniforms has been sent in and the second will be sent in as soon as the men are measured. The officers of the R. O. T. C. unit will be chosen according to the grades made on the recent test and according to general aptitude. No one thing will determine who will be officers and who will not. As a whole, all of the students taking the test seem to have gotten along fairly well and made a good showing in the work.

WINNING THE CHAINS.

DePauw has won the right to the chains and bonds of a criminal code of laws necessary not for the average university body but for the bare mean level of average society. If the accusations of the faculty members regarding cheating are in any degree as bad as reported, and from all indications there is no reason to believe otherwise, DePauw needs a set of criminal laws defining the actions of the student body and put forth not by that student body but by a guiding hand from above or without. DePauw leaders, if there are any, have failed. That is, they have failed in molding campus opinion to observe ordinary rules of life along average lines of moral decency. The student body sanctions and seemingly encourages a sneaky, thievish method of livelihood in college. If the faculty accusations are true, there is not only a certain class of students who are carrying on a criminal means of obtaining examination questions by breaking into university buildings, but there is a far larger class of more chicken hearted would-be well-doing students who are not only willing to accept these questions when procured by someone else, but sneakily strive to obtain the questions gotten by someone else. A double offense. Evidently DePauw students desire to be treated as a bunch of jail birds with professors straining their eyes and keeping watch over the examination room with a detective stare. Evidently they desire a code of laws restricting them at every turn and attempting to guide them by force. Their actions show it, at least. If the faculty accusations are true the student body has shattered the record of its athletic teams. These teams set up a record in the West for some of the hardest and most sportsmanlike playing a team could put out. They took their wins and their defeats. DePauw students can't take their defeats. They are yellow if the faculty accusations are true. They failed to do their work and couldn't take the beating. If the faculty accusations are true the student body has shown itself devoid of leaders able to declare themselves for their moral convictions along the commonest lines of average decency. The student body has won the right to be guided and ruled by force. The honor system or some set of laws must be had, seemingly, and if the student body can't make them they must yield to rule from without.

HONOR SYSTEM ADVOCATED

BY PRESIDENT GROSE

As a result of a conference held Tuesday morning by President George R. Grose with the heads of a number of campus organizations, a movement has been inaugurated for the establishment of the honor system in examinations at DePauw. Those who attended the conference were President Grose, John Rabb Emison, president of the student council; Agnes Lakin, president of S. G. A.; Virgil Jackson, president of the Y. M. C. A., and Helen Kixmiller, president of Y. W. C. A.

President Grose urged the organization leaders to ask their respective organizations to place themselves on record against examination "cribbing." No definite plan of action was formulated, it is said, but the organizations will attempt to push the immediate adoption of the honor system here, it is said.

The purpose of the conference Tuesday was to make an effort to reach some definite solution for the "cribbing" problem that has recently been brought to a head on the campus during the term examinations.

According to authoritative statements of different members of the faculty and President Grose, the practice of examination cribbing has assumed a serious attitude here. It is said by the faculty members that one student broke into a building that was locked; forced a door, broke open a drawer that was locked, stole a list of examination questions and distributed them on the campus. It is also said that one man made as high as $20 selling these questions to different students of the classes interested. The various professors assert that the "cheating" problem has become serious and that men and women in whom they had confidence have been caught "cribbing" in finals.

President Grose places the blame for condition to a great extent upon upper classmen of DePauw. It is asserted that juniors and even seniors have not only fostered and sanctioned such actions on the part of their freshmen, but have themselves been "cribbers." Dr. Grose asserts "They didn't have enough 'gizzard' to stand against it."

In speaking of the introduction of the honor system President Grose suggests that it might be well to try to put some honor into the system already in use.

The participants of the conference expressed themselves as placing the various organizations of which they were representatives on record as not only frowning upon this practice, but also in an active manner to try to crush it out.

FINAL TRY-OUTS TO BE HELD FRIDAY AFTERNOON FOR SWIMMING TOURNAMENT

The last chance to try out for the senior swimming standing will be Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Several men have already passed the requirements and it is expected that quite a number will be on hand able to make the standing Friday. Coach Buchheit states that there has been much interest taken in swimming and that in two or three weeks he is planning a tournament to determine the best swimmer in school. Next year the prospects for a swimming team are good and the men who train this year will receive first consideration.

DEAN OF WOMEN URGES SUPPORT OF HONOR SYSTEM

A feature of the house meeting at Rector Hall last night was a discussion of "cribbing" in DePauw. Miss Alvord said that more cheating had been carried on in the recent examinations than at any other time in the history of the school. There has been petty thieving going on all year, she said. Miss Alvord intimated that a definite action would be taken against "cribbers" in the near future.

She disclosed the fact that examination questions had been sold on the campus and at the frat houses for 50c a sheet, and stated that she knew of one young woman in the hall who had actually negotiated with a young man in obtaining the examination questions.

Miss Alvord said that it was time to organize against cribbers and support the honor system in the university.

RESPECT THE UNIFORM.

On the campus today the uniforms displayed would lead us to believe that about twenty nations were represented. Does the uniform of the U. S. army mean nothing to some of the men wearing them?

We see the coats turned back and a white collar and tie showing with an otherwise full uniform. We see S. A. T. C. men wearing the red, white and blue hat cords. We see men who have been in service only three months wearing the silver chevron. Where do they rate all this?

The "overseas caps" and wrapped leggings are a distinction for the men who have borne the brunt of this war on the other side. Yet we find some of the fellows on the campus who never even crossed the Wabash wearing the distinction of these men.

Are these impostors any better than the private or citizen who tries to deceive their fellowmen by donning an officers' uniform. I think not.

As a mark of respect for the uniform of the United States and a courtesy to the men returning from overseas, is it asking too much of our heroes of the battle of Camp Purdue to wear their uniforms correctly and according to their rating or take them off? If it is you may have a few callers one of these dark, stormy nights.

You are not deceiving anybody, as we know who has been where and what they rate. You are only receiving contempt and a sneer. Have the courtesy and honor of a college man and be the gentleman it calls for.—Student Opinion, Purdue Exponent.

INTER-CLASS TOURNEY STARTS SATURDAY MORNING

The inter-class basket ball games will start on Saturday morning with the first game at 10 o'clock between the sophomore and the freshmen teams. At 11 o'clock the seniors will meet the junior team. None of the captains for the teams have yet been announced. Each class will play the other three and the scoring will be on the percentage basis. The second round of the tournament will be played either some afternoon or night of next week. It is urged that the class presidents call a meeting of the men and elect the captain for their class team as soon as possible. The captain will then have charge of selecting the players.

The first sixty-dollar soldier's bonus received by any former S. A. T. C. man at DePauw was sent to Halford C. Udell, former color sergeant in the unit here. Udell's money came ten days after he sent in the discharge papers. There is little delay on the part of the government in getting the bonus to the men.

WELL KNOWN DRAMATIC CRITIC WILL ATTEND PRESENTATION OF "THE MOB"

At a meeting of Duzer Du Monday evening Cassandra Love was made chairman of the reception committee for William O. Bates of Indianapolis, who will be in Greencastle for the Saturday night performance of "The Mob." The time of the reception which will be held in the social room at the gymnasium has been set for Saturday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5. All members of Duzer Du will be present and all members of the faculty who are interested in dramatics are invited to attend. At this time Mr. Bates will deliver an address on the Little Theatre movement.

Mr. Bates is president of the widely known Indianapolis Little Theatre and is a well known dramatic critic.

Y. M. C. A. PLANS NEW MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

An extensive membership campaign is now being launched by the university Y. M. C. A. Frank Roberts, chairman of the membership committee, is now placing a membership card in the hands of every man on the campus. An interesting meeting is being planned for next Thursday evening. The exact nature of the meeting is not yet ascertainable.

Two new members have been appointed on the "Y" cabinet. Merrill Murry has been selected to act as church relationship secretary and Wesley Sternberg as discussion group secretary.

WHY YOUR MONEY IS NEEDED—HOW IT HELPS

This Brief Questionnaire Gives Interesting Information on the Victory Liberty Loan.

The government already is exploiting the Victory Liberty Loan, which will be floated in April, in order that the people may start saving for the purpose of investing in bonds of the "Victory issue." The following brief questionnaire should tend to clarify the mind of any reader regarding the Victory Loan:

Q. The war being over, why is there need of another great popular war loan?

A. The proceeds from the Fourth loan, according to Secretary of the Treasury Glass, were exhausted last December, and the government must have billions more with which to maintain our forces overseas, bring the victors home and carry out its reconstruction plans.

Q. If Uncle Sam's strong-box is empty, how is he paying his after-war expenses?

A. This is being done with money borrowed from the banks at the rate of $300,000,000 every two weeks, short-term anticipation certificates of indebtedness being issued in return.

Q. As long as the banks are advancing the money, why not let them continue to do so?

A. Because in order to continue to extend credit to the business interests big and little of the country the banks must get back this money—amounting to 20 per cent of their entire resources—when it falls due, as only thus can the prosperity we now enjoy be continued.

Q. Will the Victory Loan be offered to the people on a commercial basis, or will their patriotism again be appealed to?

A. Secretary Glass says the patriotism of the American people will be relied upon to send the loan triumphantly "over the top." It, however, will be made particularly attractive as to rate of interest and period of maturity.

Q. What are the monthly war expenditures of the government at the present time?

A. The latest official figures show that Uncle Sam is expending money at the rate of more than $2,000,000,000 a month.

Q. Suppose I bought bonds of preceding issues and feel I can't afford to buy any more Liberty bonds?

A. Uncle Sam has to pay his bills, and you must afford it, even if you have to continue for a further time denying yourself luxuries and apparent necessities. Unless the Victory Liberty Loan is a success the government will be compelled to raise the money it needs by direct taxation, and there are no interest coupons on tax receipts.

A Tart Remark.

The saying that a woman doesn't like to tell her age may be cruel slander on the sex, but it was true of Mrs. Thompson. She never missed a chance of letting her friends know she was years younger than her husband.

"Yes, George is 59 years old," she remarked to a visitor one day, "and there are ten years between us."

But the visitor was an elderly spinster with a sour disposition.

"Is that so?" exclaimed, in well-assumed surprise. "Now, really, you look quite as young as he does."

Embroidery Saved.

A young woman living in a village near Columbus became engaged recently to a young man. The girl's name for the sake of this tale shall be Jones and that of the young man Jackson. She called at the home of the young man's friend to break the news.

"Oh, I am so happy!" said the young man. "And just to think, your embroidery initials won't have to be changed!"

Logical.

Kind Old Lady—"I'm sure you won't mind my asking you, but are you a relative of Captain Jones, of Mudford?"

The Officer—"Madam, I am Captain Jones, of Mudford."

Kind Old Lady—"Ah, then that accounts for the extraordinary resemblance!"

French Politeness.

As a truly polite nation the French undoubtedly lead the world, thinks a contributor to a British weekly. The other day a Paris dentist's servant opened the door to a woebegone patient.

"Adieu, monsieur," he queried in a tender tone, "shall I have the misery of announcing?"

FIDO GIVES NOTICE

Fido lived in a queer kennel. It was a great dog, hollowed out, with a chain fastened at one end to keep Fido from running away. He was a lively young dog, so he ran in and out of the log a great many times, and was glad when his master, George, came to set him free for a good frolic.

George lived away up in Canada, far from every one and everything, except trees. Sometimes days went by without seeing any one but his father and mother and baby sister, so George was much surprised one day when Fido began to bark furiously and voices were heard in the road.

George hurried out to find a man and a woman standing by the fence. They were tourists who had come to spend their summer at the lake, not many miles away. They had big baskets of lunch and seemed to be out for a long day's tramp.

"Won't you let me take a photograph of your dog?" the man asked pleasantly. "I never saw a kennel like that, and I should like to show it to my little boy at home. That's a fine dog you have, too."

George beamed with pride. "You may take his photograph if he'll let you," said George.

Fido barked more than ever as the man came near him, and ran into his house; but when he ran out to see if the danger were past, George heard a quick little snap and knew that the photograph had been taken.

"Where do you go to school?" the woman asked after her husband had thanked George.

"Kingsville," the boy replied.

"Then why aren't you there? Didn't you know school began today?"

George was so surprised he could hardly answer. There was no newspaper in his neighborhood, no telephone in his house, no school bell that he could hear—nothing to tell him that other boys and girls had started to school. You may be sure he was ready to go early the next morning, and that afternoon he gave Fido an extra race for telling him that strange news were going by, and so giving him notice that it was time for school to begin.

Before and After

"Why are the stars so dim tonight?" she cooed softly.

"Because your eyes are so much brighter," he whispered, pressing her little hand.

They were engaged then.

"I wonder how many telegraph poles it would take to reach from here to the stars?" she murmured, musingly.

"One, if it were long enough," he growled. "Why don't you talk common sense?"

That was after they were married.

Do not imagine that because you have tried various remedies without any permanent benefit that your cough is incurable. Bear in mind that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has cured others, lots of them, why not you. Read what Mrs. J. L. Jones, New Kensington, Pa., says of this remedy.
